Attn: Ms. Susan Schoenecker

Dear Ms. Schoenecker:

This letter will confirm our conversation of March 8, 1983. As I advised you we have presently discontinued soliciting business for any items which bear the Donkey Kong decoration, because of the pendency of litigation with Universal City Studios described in their attorneys letter of January 3, 1983.

We have no knowledge of the particulars of the pending litigation and are not in a position to access independently its possible outcome or its impact on the proposed addendum relating to your indemnification of us against certain claims. Accordingly, we do not presently intend to continue to sell any of the designs involved until we can be sure this matter is resolved.

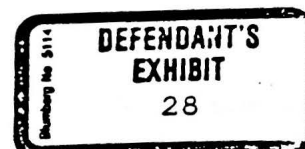

Sincerely, Yours,

G.K. Larew
